Blue Mountains

The Grand Circular Drive starts at Penrith and takes you through the Blue Mountains and back via Richmond and Windsor. The Blue Mountains Visitor Information Centre at Glenbrook has maps and information about what to see and do along the way. Glenbrook Village has cafés, nurseries, arts and crafts, parks and friendly family cinema and is the Gateway to the Blue Mountains National Park where you can see native animals in the wild at Eureka Clearing, swim in mountain pools, stay for a picnic, take a walk or bike ride, see Aboriginal rock carvings. Nearby Lennox Bridge is the oldest bridge on the Australian mainland. www.glenbrookbluemountains.com.au

At Faulconbridge visit the home and gallery of famous artist, Norman Lindsay. See the world famous Three Sisters and Scenic World at Katoomba and visit Mount Tomah Botanic Gardens as you return via Bells Line of Road. Follow Victoria Pass through historic Hartley to the world heritage listed Jenolan Caves. 1300 763 311 www.jenolancaves.org.au
